

2025 CONCLAVE TRAINING SCHEDULE

Refer to the map in your participant guide for locations.

Session 1 (9:00 - 9:50 AM)

Class	Description	Instructor	Location
Carving the Call: Wooden Whistles	Carving a whistle out of a stick. Materials will be supplied but if you have a pocket knife bring it. I will have a limited supply of knives you can borrow.	Blair Timmerman	Outside Climbing Tower
The Explorer's Journal: Creative Writing for Adventure Logs	Explore your adventures through writing. This class teaches you how to use journaling and creative writing techniques to document your experiences. You'll craft an entry about a memorable event and, if you choose, share your story with the group.	Ethan Green	TTFC Shelter
The Golden Griddle: Flat Top Cooking	This class introduces the versatility of flat top grill cooking and how it can transform patrol meals. You'll see how it makes cooking faster, easier, and more enjoyable while serving great food for your group.	Ed & Joey Henson	Side of Office
Uncovering the Secrets: Intro to Magic the Gathering	Introduction to Magic the Gathering	Gabe Breeding	Campcraft
The Collector's Code: Intro to Patch Trading	Introduction to Patch Trading will focus on the history and fundamentals of trading patches in Scouting. Terms and ethics will provide a foundation for any Scout wishing to trade patches comfortably and in a rewarding manner.	Jeff Ansley	Dining Hall - South End
Jungle Lodging: Hammock Camping	Learn the ins and outs on camping the hammock way	John Mudd & Dana Fowler	Outside Nature
Expedition Photography: Capturing the Adventure	Every great expedition deserves to have its discoveries documented with stunning photos! Learn basic photography principles like composition and lighting to take museum-worthy pictures with your own smartphone or camera. Participate in a "photo scavenger hunt" around conclave, capturing moments of cheerful service and dramatic portraits, then share and critique your adventurous shots.	Julian Anderson & Richard Salsbury	South of Dining Hall (Meadow)
Quest for Global Brotherhood: International Scouting Programs	Scouting is designed as a "world movement" from the beginning. In this session, you can learn how to participate "international" programs and when it will be, including in your home unit. International Scouting is the best way to make your Scouting as lifelong scouting experience for both youth and adult volunteers.	Jun Takei	Inside Nature
Braiding the Path: Paracord Bracelets	Learn about paracord patterns and create your own paracord bracelet.	Rae Ann Lee & Amalinda Tavernier	North Parade Grounds Shelter
The Adventurer's Edge: Knife Anatomy & Sharpening	Description and explanation of the different styles of everyday carry knives along with their features. Knife sharpening techniques will be explained and demonstrated.	Randal Veenker	Entrance to Chapel
The Hidden Map to Success: Internal Communication for Lodge / Chapter Health	This class helps you improve communication in your lodge or chapter. You'll learn to create clear channels to keep everyone informed and engaged, analyze current communication flows, and develop strategies to improve information exchange and celebrate your successes.	Reece Lewallen & Matthew Shumway	Comms Office
The Lost Suds: Soap Making (Session 1 & 2)	Learn how to make traditional soap by combining oils, lye and water. We will discuss the process, safety for using lye, and then pour our soap batter into molds, allowing everything to sit overnight. You will go home with a bar of soap! Remember to bring a long-sleeved shirt or jacket to protect your arms from lye burns.	Tommi Poesltra & Maria Flores	Outside Handicraft
Axe of the Ancients Certification: Tomahawk Rangemaster Training (all 3 sessions + afternoon)	Course will cover requirements for certification to run a Tomahawk & Knife Throwing range as required by Cascade Pacific Council. Certification good for 2 years. Attendees must attend all class sessions in the am, as well as assist in setting up; throwing; running range (range commands); and take down of range in the afternoon in order to receive certification.	Ron Stankye	Shotgun Range (morning) & Parade Grounds (afternoon)

Session 2 (10:00 - 10:50 AM)

Class	Description	Instructor	Location
Carving the Temple's Secret: Ball in Cage Carving	Wood carving a ball inside a block of wood. Materials will be supplied but if you have a pocket knife bring it. I will have a limited supply of knives you can borrow.	Blair Timmerman	Outside Climbing Tower
The Great Convergence: Tsisqan & Lo La'Qam Geela Merger	Learn about the merger of Tsisqan and Lo La'Qam Geela Lodge, how the process works, and what the next steps are.	Chyna Noel-Crossett & Ethan Green	TTFC Shelter
The Archaeologist's Cauldron: Dutch Oven Cooking	Ever wanted to learn how to make the delicacy "Monkey brains" from the Pankot Palace? Come and learn how while also learning how to properly take care of your Dutch oven, and be able to walk away with a snack and some new knowledge!	Ed & joey Henson	Side of Office
Uncovering the Secrets: Intro to Magic the Gathering	Introduction to Magic the Gathering	Gabe Breeding	Campcraft
The Collector's Code: Intro to Patch Trading	Introduction to Patch Trading will focus on the history and fundamentals of trading patches in Scouting. Terms and ethics will provide a foundation for any Scout wishing to trade patches comfortably and in a rewarding manner.	Jeff Ansley	Dining Hall - South End
The Arrow's Glow: Sun Catcher Crafting	Design and make your own suncatcher using string and a variety of vibrant beads	Hazel Rouse	Archery Range
The Expedition Chronicle: Crafting Your Newsletter's Foundation	Just like an expedition needs a solid plan, your lodge or chapter newsletter needs a strong foundation. This class guides you in defining your newsletter's purpose and audience, then helps you plan engaging content with key sections. You'll also learn simple design principles and effective calls to action to make your chronicle a success.	Kol Helland	Comms Office
Quest for Global Brotherhood: International Scouting Programs	Scouting is designed as a "world movement" from the beginning. In this session, you can learn how to participate "international" programs and when it will be, including in your home unit. International Scouting is the best way to make your Scouting as lifelong scouting experience for both youth and adult volunteers.	Jun Takei	Inside Nature
Braiding the Path: Paracord Bracelets	Learn about paracord patterns and create your own paracord bracelet.	Rae Ann Lee & Amalinda Tavernier	North Parade Grounds Shelter
The Adventurer's Edge: Knife Anatomy & Sharpening	Description and explanation of the different styles of everyday carry knives along with their features. Knife sharpening techniques will be explained and demonstrated.	Randal Veenker	Entrance to Chapel
The Artifacts of Accreditation: NCAP Informational	2025 National Camp Accreditation Program Essentials Update. Stop by and find out what the latest updates are for Ensuring the Adventure, and Ensuring Safety through NCAP Assessments for Scouting's adventures.	Jackie Dannemiller	Waterfront Shelter
Being Prepared to help: Suicide Prevention and Supporting others through hard times	As Scouts, we're trained to be prepared — not just for physical emergencies, but for emotional ones too. Suicide is a serious topic, and it's something that can affect people of all ages, including teens. This training is about knowing the signs, how to respond, and how to get help — for ourselves or someone else. Just like first aid, it's about learning what to do when someone's life may be at risk.	Susan Cowen	Inside Handicraft
Brotherhood Beyond Boundaries: Queer Youth in Leadership	This training will discuss the issues queer scouts face. As well as how to address them and become leaders in our communities.	Truman Grace	South Parade Shelter
Swim Tests	Swim tests are required to participate in afternoon open waterfront activities.	Aquatic Staff	Waterfront

Session 3 (11:00 - 11:50 AM)

Class	Description	Instructor	Location
The Sacred Fire's Glow: Looking into the Past, Present, & Future OA Ceremonies	Looking into the Past, Present, & Future OA Ceremonies. This is an open discussion on how ceremonies have evolved and some previews of where we are going in the future.	Blair Timmerman	Outside Climbing Tower
Charting the Course: Effective Chapter Leading	Strong lodges need strong chapters. Come join a discussion on how OA chapters can help Scouts and adults become better, more effective leaders and make an impact in their lodge	John Mudd	Outside Nature
Fueling the Expedition: Cooking for Large Groups	Cooking for 50 to 500: Cooking for Large Groups This class covers the essentials of planning and preparing meals for events serving 50 to 500 people. Whether it's in the dining hall, a mobile kitchen, or out on the trail, we'll explore strategies to make large-scale cooking easier. This discussion-based class is for beginners to experts alike, so bring your own ideas and experiences to share as we learn together.	Ed & joey Henson	Side of Office
Magic the Gathering: Applied Play	Apply your skills in a game of Magic the Gathering	Gabe Breeding	Campcraft
Temple of Talk: Safeguarding Our Story, Our Scouts	Join us for an interactive roundtable discussion designed to equip adult leaders with essential communication skills. In this session, we'll delve into critical topics including Youth Protection & Scouting safety, crisis communications, and navigating rumors & misinformation.	Matthew Shumway	South of Dining Hall (Meadow)
The Arrow's Glow: Sun Catcher Crafting	Design and make your own suncatcher using string and a variety of vibrant beads	Hazel Rouse	Archery Range
The Temple of Service: Identifying & Executing Impactful Projects	Identifying community needs, planning and executing meaningful service projects(both large-scale Lodge projects and smaller unit-level initiatives), impact assessment, cheerful service in action.	Norm Dannemiller	Back of Campcraft
Quest for Global Brotherhood: International Scouting Programs	Scouting is designed as a "world movement" from the beginning. In this session, you can learn how to participate "international" programs and when it will be, including in your home unit. International Scouting is the best way to make your Scouting as lifelong scouting experience for both youth and adult volunteers.	Jun Takei	Inside Nature
Braiding the Path: Paracord Bracelets	Learn about paracord patterns and create your own paracord bracelet.	Rae Ann Lee & Amalinda Tavernier	North Parade Grounds Shelter
The Adventurer's Edge: Knife Anatomy & Sharpening	Description and explanation of the different styles of everyday carry knives along with their features. Knife sharpening techniques will be explained and demonstrated.	Randal Veenker	Entrance to Chapel
The High Council of the Arrow: Meet the Leadership Q&A	Arrowmen can come and meet some of the Order of the Arrow's youth leaders in this fun Q&A style forum. Section leadership, lodge chiefs, and special guests will be in attendance.	Section & Lodge Leadership & Guests	Chapel
Being Prepared to help: Suicide Prevention and Supporting others through hard times	As Scouts, we're trained to be prepared — not just for physical emergencies, but for emotional ones too. Suicide is a serious topic, and it's something that can affect people of all ages, including teens. This training is about knowing the signs, how to respond, and how to get help — for ourselves or someone else. Just like first aid, it's about learning what to do when someone's life may be at risk.	Susan Cowen	Inside Handicraft
Swim Tests	Swim tests are required to participate in afternoon open waterfront activities.	Aquatic Staff	Waterfront